THIS MATTER came on before the undersigned pursuant to a Motion to Modify Conditions of Release (#10) filed by counsel for Defendant. In the motion, the Defendant and her counsel requests that the Order Setting Conditions of Release (#7) be amended to allow Defendant to travel to New York, New York for the purpose of resolving issues regarding an apartment that has been rented by the Defendant as lessee. The Defendant is expecting to receive a notice of eviction and wishes to appear in New York to seek an emergency grant for rental assistance and potentially freeze her monthly rental that is due. The Government has advised the Court that it has no objection to the motion. As a result the motion will be allowed.
